

To further weaken public interest controls on the broadcast industry would be a severe travesty. The air waves belong to all and I strongly urge you not to proceed with rules allowing further consolidations